The First Cut

Eurythmics

The first cut
Is a criminal thing
The first cut
Goes deeper in
Each impression
Makes a chain reaction
Each impression
Will never be never be never be never be broken
I'm a white girl
You can see my skin
Look at this picture
That I'm living in
And old scores never settle down
I'll keep on walking
Till I'm buried in the cold ground

Cold ground, cold cold ground
Each impression
Makes a chain reaction
Each impression
Will never be never be never be never be broken
The first cut
The first cut
The first cut
The first cut
The first cut
The first cut
The first cut
