

Love In Decline

Jimmy Buffett

Left one in the drizzlin' rain
Found one on the mornin' plane
Layin' out his well-known line
Bought her some gin that did her in
Now their makin' love behind the occupied sing Just a livin' example of love in decline
Lookin' so hard and so little time
Goin' ninety to nothin' and flyin' stone blind
Just a livin' example of love in decline Miyama hotel disco bar
He asks if she's a movie star
Her eyes light up they're going far
No time for a room it happened too soon
Now they're makin' love in her rent-a-car That's just another example of love in decline
Lookin' so hard and so little time
Goin' ninety to nothin' and flyin' stone blind
Just a livin' example of love in decline Red-eyed on a midnight flight
He's a little tired but she looks just right
He asks for dark so she hits the light
Engines whine seats recline
They're makin' love till the mornin' light Just a shinin' example of love in decline
Lookin' so hard and so little time
Goin' ninety to nothin' and flyin' stone blind
Just a livin' example of love in decline Just a livin' example of love in decline
Just a livin' example of love in decline

Songwriters

Mike Utley; Jimmy Buffett; Will Jennings Published by BLUE SKY RIDER SONGS (WARNER); WARNER-TAMERLANE PUBLISHING CORP. Song
Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>