Fake

Allele

In a dark room, with no conscious
I hear a voice saying not again
In a circle, of no reason
Stepping on everyone you call your friendsAlways on empty it's unambiguous
You're testing my patience as you avoid the rest
So no I'm falling and I'm filling up
With the emotion I'm choking up
And your walls keep building up
Your pain defines me, inside it's blindingAnd the pieces, on the inside
You will break and you'll mold again
What's the purpose for all this pain?
Will you find yourself again?Always on empty it's unambiguous
You're testing my patience as you avoid the rest
So no I'm falling and I'm filling up
With the emotion I'm choking up
And your walls keep building up
Your pain defines me, inside it's blindingYou fake everything you do
And throw it all away when you're throughSo no I'm falling and I'm filling up
With the emotion I'm choking up
And your walls keep building up
Your pain defines me, inside it's blinding
