

Me Oh My

Five Iron Frenzy

Me oh my,
There's something happening in the sky.
I see my favorite face.
And I'm filled with your light,
it chokes me up so fiercely,
Soaked with your grace,
I'll dance all night,

Chorus:

I've got to say goodbye. There's something happening in the sky,
A hand to hold the nations up in peace.

Me oh my!

I recall that I'm yours now I'm feeling fine,
Me oh my, your're mine.

I sense a coming reign, It's happening in the sky
The sun smiles down and warms our hearts,
