

Cotton Candy

Papa

I wanna know you but I don't so far
I wanna hold you but I feel like a baby
I wanna tell you but I haven't so far
I wanna show but I feel just like a babe

Ah ooo

Me and everyone I know, we're going to hell, to hell
Odd jobs and cotton candy all my devils treat me, so well

Take me away

Seems like you wash your face with milk and honey
And everything beside you feels like a chore
I wish my mind wasn't so fucken bloody
I gotta be the one, the one you adore

Ah ooo

Me and everyone I know are going to hell, to hell
Odd jobs and cotton candy all devils treat me, so well

Me and everyone I know are going to hell, to hell
Odd jobs and cotton candy all devils treat me, so well

I swear

Don't keep me wishing
No, don't keep me waiting
Just keep me for yourself
Everyday
Give me one reason to cradle my bleeding
I need a break from the race
