

Masterpiece Theatre II

Marianas Trench

I will softly pull away
In this broken beautiful mess I've made
And in the dead and quiet I will slowly fade
In this masterpiece I made
I'll burn out and slip away
And this is just a part I portray
You're beautiful
Can I hide in you and stay here?
Making mostly to themselves
Hush now, they'll hurt you till your heart melts
They know you're lonely and they will only break your heart
And this masterpiece will tear you apart
I'll burn out and slip away
And this is just a part I portray
You're beautiful
Can I hide in you and stay here?
First it comes alive creeping quiet
And this is just a part I portray
You're beautiful
Can I hide in you and stay here all night?
I'll wreck this if I have to
Tell me what good would that do?
I'll wreck this if I have to
Tell me what good would that do?
I'll wreck this if I have to
Tell me what good would that do?
