

Strange Powers

The Magnetic Fields

On the ferris wheel
Looking out on Coney Island
Under more stars than
There are prostitutes in Thailand Our hair in the air
Our lips blue from cotton candy
When we kiss it feels
Like a flying saucer landing And I can't sleep
'Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers In Las Vegas where
The electric bills are staggering
The decor hog wild
And the entertainment saccharine What a golden age
What a time of right and reason
The consumers king
And unhappiness is treason And I can't sleep
'Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers The sun pours down like money
The moon runs down like mercury
The stars fall down like money
And you come down to me And I can't sleep
'Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers And I can't sleep
'Cause you got strange powers
You're in my dreams
Strange powers
