

Would These Arms Be In Your Way (feat. Red Lane)

Jamey Johnson

Would you like to hear
I love you all the time
And if you couldn't turn around
Without touching would you mind? You know there's something missing
'Round your waist
Tell me
Would these arms be in your way? Would you mind another heart
Beating for you
Two ears that listen
You can talk to. Kisses filled with feeling
On your face
Now tell me
Would these arms be in your way? Would you mind another heart
Beating for you
Two ears that listen
You can talk to. Kisses filled with feeling
On your face
Now tell me
Would these arms be in your way? Now tell me
Would these arms be in your way?
