

Later Is Now

Devo

MC yells, "I'm free"
Hey, dude
Coming through
As he mows 'em downIn his truck
Pedal's stuck
To the floor
4 x 4
Burning oil by the tonI walked outside
It hit me on the dome
If you don't want trouble
You should stay at homeIn the day-glo sky
Above the devolved city
I looked up and saw
The banner big and boldLater is now
Sooner or later everybody gets it, right?
Later is now
Sooner or later everything comes to light
Later is nowLotta gold
On the phone
Dishing dirt
'til it hurts
Sends 'em all to hellStalks her prey
Every day
Nasty blog
It's her job
Makin' trouble pays her wellI walked outside
It hit me on the dome
If you don't want trouble
You should stay at homeIn the day-glo sky
I looked up and saw
The banner big and boldLater is nowTomorrow is a replay
So tonight I'll try to sleep
I'll deal with it later
I'll deal with it later
I'll deal with it laterLater is now
Sooner or later everything comes to light
Later is now
Sooner or later everybody feels the biteLater is now

Sooner or later everybody gets it, right?

Later is now

Sooner or later everything comes to light Later is now

Later is now

Later is now

Later is now
