Afi

Fuck you very much You say you want to be friends
Start over and try again?
Well, things will never be the way they were back then
Things were never how you wanted
I couldn't think of you that way
Now, if you walk one step closer I will take two steps away Maybe you need affection
I'd like to help you but I can't stand when you're around
Fuck you very much
Maybe you need to talk but you betrayed my trust
Friends were not good enough?
Fuck you very much You can fucking claim you're straight
Go ahead and dye your hair
Won't get more attention from me
I will never fucking care I try to remain secret
Shooting away, hiding out
But you always track me down
Open your eyes and figure it out Maybe you need affection
I'd like to help you but I can't stand when you're around
Fuck you very much
Maybe you need to talk but you betrayed my trust
Friends were not good enough?
Fuck you very much I'm not trying again
I'm sick of seeing you
Don't wanna be your friend
I wish you'd go away Fuck you very much You say you want to be friends
Start over and try again?
Well, things will never be the way they were back then
Things were never how you wanted
I couldn't think of you that way
Now, if you walk one step closer I will take two steps away Maybe you need affection
I'd like to help you but I can't stand when you're around
Fuck you very much
Maybe you need to talk but you betrayed my trust
Friends were not good enough?
Fuck you very much
