You Are Everything to Me

Johnny Mathis

Everywhere you go, that's where I simply have to be
For you are everything to me
Everything you touch at once is sacred, divine
Can I hold? You'll be mineKiss me and I'm strong enough to turn the strongest tide
Just sigh and I go wild inside
I'll be everything you ever want me to be
For, my darling, you are everything to meI'll be everything you ever want me to be
Oh, darling, you are everything to me
