

Pantry Queen

Kara's Flowers

The wind blows your mind falls down
Just give me the time to drown
The wind blows your mind falls down
Just give me the time to drownThe boys are digging the ground
But I can't stop spinning aroundSome day you will let me be, yeah
What I wanted you to be, yeahThe boys are stopping the crowd
From taking those things we foundSomeday she will let me see
All of the things we used to seeOne day you will let me be, yeah
(Pantry queen, pantry queen)
What I wanted you to be, yeah
(Pantry queen, pantry queen)
One day she will let me be
(Pantry queen, pantry queen)
The champ she wanted her to see
(Pantry queen, pantry queen)
