Forgotten Sanity

Curve

I've forgotten how to write
And I'm giving up on speech
I can't remember how I look
Or the day of the weekYour love is a distant memory
Along with most of my family
I'd get on my knees but I'm not allowed
Even though I've forgotten howI've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten howI've forgotten how to walk
And I can't use my hands at all
I'd cross my heart and hope to die
But I'm heading for a fallJust let me go for my sanity
Put me out of my misery
I'd get on my knees but I'm not allowed
Even though I've forgotten howI've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
Decay, decay, decay, decayYour love is a distant memory
Along with most of my family
I'd get on my knees but I'm not allowed
Even though I've forgotten howI've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how
I've forgotten howPut me out of my misery
Let me go for my sanity
