Never Gonna Come Back

Gravediggaz

Black woman, she's never gonna come back
Princess, she's never gonna come back
The Queen, modern civilization
(I never find another honor like a track)Just knowin' she's never gonna come back
I heard the gun clap, I heard the gun clap
She's never gonna come back
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)Yo, I saw the woman I love colored in blood
War is hell, I cut shells, was then covered in mud
As four ships hovered above, my heart griefs
But at least she didn't take the mark of the beast
Rest in peace BooIf I blessed then I'ma meet you on the other side
But for now I gotta slide through physical minefields
Miserable is how my mind feels knowin'
It's long time to heal, shit is realAnother black mold in a hole
God rest your soul as you travel back home
I'll carry your essence in the thoughts I'm manifestin'
As pleasant memories outshine my depressionMy physical stress says it's time to rest
Bein' chased by the devil tryin' to take my breath
Ain't a place on the Earth that you can't get touched
If I get bucked let my melanin' rust hit the dustShe's never gonna come back
(The queen, the princess)
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)Yo, yo, just knowin' she's never gonna come back
I heard the gun clap, I heard the gun clap
She's never gonna come back
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)Yo, my Boo was hard as corn liquor when we met
Livin' jet set, everything connect
Fitted like a seam, double stitched
If I had a scratch she knew where to find the itchMany warm hugs and soapy back rubs
Candlelight's held tight at the hips every night
My soul is cold Boo, I can't abandon ship
'Cause of false reactions, I miss you with a passionYour new being represents a universal mean
So rise like cream, black queen
Unfortunately you died in my arms
From a stray bullet from afar that ripped through the carMy dreams are intense with very little sense
My pretense cracked to find an honor like a track Boo
I wanna follow in pursuit

What I got to do, what I got to doShe's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)Yo, yo, yo, just knowin' she's never gonna come back
I heard the gun clap, I heard the gun clap
She's never gonna come back
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)
She's never gonna come backYo, yo, yo, just knowin' she's never gonna come back
When I heard the gun clap, I heard the gun clap
She's never gonna come back
She's never gonna come back
(I never find another honor like a track)Another casualty of war in the black on black crime saga
More drama for the ghetto
More human bodies ignited by metal
Yo, once they gone they never come back, yo
