Steal A Car

Wetdog

I want to know just what you're keeping in your pocket.
I want to taste it before anybody knows its name.
You can hide in here with me.
I'll take all the blame.
I need to know just what you're keeping in your pocket.
I need to know it before anybody gets a piece.
I want to take it home with me.
I can't share with anyone.
You steal a car I'll steal the cash.
And then we're really movin'.
The only life worth losin' is the one that I can't spend with you.
I'll make a deal if you can deal with my devil.
We'll trade our souls and then I ruin you, you ruin me.
It's the best most people do.

But I'm sure we'll make it through.
We'll dig a hole where we can hide from your upbringing.
We'll let them visit but we know that it is just pretend.
Like we really give a damn about their town or government.
You change your face you change your name.
And then all you are are changin'.
I see you rearrangin'.
But I know you're just the same inside.
You steal a car I'll steal the cash.
And then we're gonna move it.
The only life worth losin' is the one that I can't spend with you.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/