Headlong into Carnage

Cannibal Corpse

No hesitation as the bloodshed begins
Frenzied violence, raging death
Devastation as the killers
Savagely murder all in sightMutilators swarming hacking off limbs
Falling bodies, severed heads
Pure destruction by the mob
Butchering all that they can seeHoning their insanity
Headlong into carnage without fear
Ruthless human weapons with no conscience, unawareRampaging killers slash with furious hate
Bones are breaking, blood is spilled
Mutilation feeds their hunger
Brutally killing satisfied
Relentless slaughter innards hang from their bladesDisembowelment, of their prey
In the bloodbath all their vile
Dreams will come to passWeaponized psychopathy
Headlong into carnage seeking blood
Seething minds distorted by the violence and painDriven by adrenaline
Headlong into carnage they attack
Merciless and brutal take the head off of your neckSweat flies while throats are cut
Tendons snapping, sinew tearing
Blood pours from gaping wounds
Sadistic chaos, grips youBones crack from heavy blows
Fractured cheekbones, shattered skull
Bludgeoning without remorse
Eyes bulge and spurt out bloodExtensive killing many thousands have died
Bodies rotting, stench of death
Desolation as the killers
Scavenge the corpses of the slainInsane desire, killing cannot end
Psychotic evil, mania
Stimulation by the blood
Searching for people they can killWeaponized psychopathy
Headlong into carnage seeking blood
Seething minds distorted by the violence and painDriven by adrenaline
Headlong into carnage they attack
Merciless and brutal take the head off of your neck
