Rock The Flock

Televisor

Leave your thoughts behind you it's gonna get you,
mind your intuition,
it's gonna break youGotta leave your past around you,
it's gonna take you,
mind your inhibitions,
I'm gonna guide youSuddenly I feel like you took away the night, you're still the one for me and I know that you just might,
be everything I like,
you're playing in my key,
you're everything I sing,
my perfect melodyYou're everything I need,
my perfect melody,
everything I need (everything I need)Keep your wits about you, it will change you,
break your mind's intentions, they're gonna crave youkeep your friends around you, they're gonna need you use your brain's intention, its gonna feed youYou suddenly appeared and you took away the night, you're still the one for me and I know that you just might,
be everything I like,
you're playing in my key,
you're everything I sing,
my perfect melodyEverything I needYou suddenly appeared and you took away the night You suddenly appeared and you took away the nightYou suddenly appeared and you took away the night, you're still the one for me and I know that you just might,
be everything I like,
you're playing in my key,
you're everything I sing,
