

My Mind Is Dangerous (Live 97)

Life of Agony

I look in the mirror and guess what I see
A baby blue eyed spirit who seeks your everything
My mind is chaotic, unless I choose to be free
Sometimes I just can't help myself, sometimes I just can't help myself
My mind dangerous, that's who I'll always be
My mind dangerous, that's who I'll always be Hideous devastations, lifeless serenity
My abstract emotions, somehow, get the best of me
Lord take away my sorrow, Lord take away my pain
Erasing life tomorrow, ain't the motive to the game
My mind dangerous, that's who I'll always be
My mind dangerous, that's who I'll always be
