Yeah Yeah Yeah

P.y.t.

[Incomprehensible]
Two zero zero zero
P.Y.T.Yeah, yeah, yeah, said I, said I heard it before
And now I'm out the door 'cause I can't take it no more
Say you, you, you, an' whatcha keep puttin' me through
Shame, shame on you, what goes around comes back to youI can't believe you lied to me, keep tellin' me she's history
An' then why does she keep callin' me and pagin' me
And buggin' me, she's hawkin' me, vexin' me
Stalkin' me, faxin' me, stressin' me, gonna make me scream, manStill your bringing her around, gonna I drive my ride all over town
Actin' like I never been down boy, you're gonna make me wanna clown
Lose control, let it go, this has to stop messin' up my flow
You gotta go, I gotta go don't you know 'cause I knowYeah, yeah, yeah, said I, said I heard it before
And now I'm out the door 'cause I can't take it no more
Say you, you, you, an' whatcha keep puttin' me through
Shame, shame on you, what goes around comes back to youToo many times I trusted you, believed in you, had faith in you
Then you go actin' a fool why would you wanna treat me cruel
Without tellin' me, feelin' me, lovin' me, care for me
But ya lied to me, whatcha lied to me no truth to get no sympathyToo bad you lost your turn mess with us and you're gonna get burned
No more chance, no points to earn, no need to town with no concern
Stop callin' me, naggin' me, beggin' me, baby please
No love for you, no love for me, I'm over you zero degreesYeah, yeah, yeah, said I, said I heard it before
And now I'm out the door 'cause I can't take it no more
Say you, you, you, an' whatcha keep puttin' me through
Shame, shame on you, what goes around comes back to youSaid, if it was her you wanted, you should've told me
Instead of fakin' moves, tellin' me you loved me
I can't believe you lied to me, haven't heard just callin' me
Boy, if the things you could have imagined
Instead of lovin' me you was happen
So goodbye, so long, be used, I'm goneYeah, yeah, yeah, said I, said I heard it before
And now I'm out the door 'cause I can't take it no more
Say you, you, you, an' whatcha keep puttin' me through
Shame, shame on you, what goes around comes back to youYeah, yeah, yeah, said I, said I heard it before
And now I'm out the door 'cause I can't take it no more
Say you, you, you, an' whatcha keep puttin' me through

Shame, shame on you, what goes around comes back to you
