

I'm Nobody's Fool

Catherine Britt

You're coming on strong and I'm telling you, no
'Cause that ring on your finger
Says there's someone waiting at home
And she'd never understand why someone like me
Would do her wrong when I know all along
You'd never be true to me Well, I might be a little younger than most
Girls you hang around
And I got a lot to learn about painting the town
But cheating's a game you never win
So I play play by the rules
'Cause, baby, when it comes to love
Well, I'm nobody's fool You're saying I'm wrong but I know that I'm right
Well, I'm thinking about tomorrow
You're only thinking about tonight
I'm sure there's been other girls have fallen for your lies
But I'm looking for a whole lot more
Than what you have in mind Well, I might be a little younger than most
Girls you hang around
And I got a lot to learn about painting the town
But cheating's a game you never win
So I play play by the rules
'Cause, baby, when it comes to love
Well, I'm nobody's fool
'Cause, baby, when it comes to love
Well, I'm nobody's fool

Songwriters

Britt, Catherine Elisabeth / Long, William Brice Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing, BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>