

Lights Out In Mississippi

Patent Pending

there's no hope in Cincinnati or a town like Baton Rouge i can offer you Chicago, still there's nothing i can do so i'm holding fast to Houston, as you scream Niagara Falls and i hope and pray you won't return at all as the lights burn out in Mississippi as the tears roll down in old St. Paul i'll be writing you this letter Kansas City (dreaming) while i hope and pray you won't return at all there's no left turns in Jersey i don't care for San Jose and i'll probably go to Vegas in the fall head west to San Diego while New York is standing tall and i hope and pray you won't return at all when the sun comes up in Pasadena when the waves crash down in the Carolinas when i lose all hope in Colorado when the heart dies down in Arizona every song i sing i'll sing for you i'll call at 3am just like i always do every second every minute every hour of the day you're always on my mind
