

Blink and You'll Miss It

Paul Weller

Can nobody love you
Like I love you, yeah
Can nobody need you
Like I need you, yeah While you got your head in the clouds
And talking so loud
Can't you see past the stages
It's only when you finally arrive
That you recognize
You been going through changes Oh, changes Can nobody kiss you
Like I miss you, yeah
Can nobody tame you
Ain't no chains to hold you While you got your head in the clouds
And talking so loud
Can't you read, past the pages
It's only when you finally arrive
That you recognize
You been going through changes Oh, changes
Ah, changes
Oh, changes
Ah, changes While you got your head in the clouds
And talking so loud
Can't you see, past the stages
It's only when you finally arrive
That you recognize
You been going through changes Oh, changes
Ah, changes
Oh, changes
Oh Blink and you just might miss it
Blink and you just might miss it
Blink and you just might miss it
Blink and you just might miss it
