

The Fall

Hollysiz

Watching TV, it feels like a life replay
Paralysed by the fear, I stay
I call a friend, expect a magic spell
I need some love but don't know how to tell Watch me in my fall, in my fall
Gravity takes control, takes control You stopped me in the middle of a fall
In the middle of a fall, in the middle of a fall
You saved me in the middle of a fall
In the middle of a fall, in the middle of a fall
Time is hanging, my head hits the ground
I thought I was flying, my hero was my wound
I'm falling apart, my slices on the floor
Flies all around, what do they look for? Scratches on my wall, on my wall
Gravity takes control, takes control You saved me in the middle of a fall
I had no one to call, I had no one to call I screamed just to see if I could
I lost my voice for good, I lost my voice for good
My tears were trapped in the wall
I had no one to call, I had no one to call My screams were stuck in the wood
I lost my voice for good, I lost my voice for good
