Girl Crazy

LMNT

Feels like I'm losin' my mind
Caught up tryin' to count all these girls in my life
So hard for me to resist
When they walk by, they give me the eye, I fall in love every timeAnd it's so deceiving how people perceive me
But I'm in search of the perfect one, yeahFell in love with a girl on Sunday
Fell in love with another on Monday
Who knows what will happen today
I'm goin' girl crazy
Wine and dinin' all these honeys
Hangin' out, blowin' all of my money
Even though it's kinda funny
I'm still girl crazyIt seems like time after time
I'm living it up, spreading my love to all the girls I can find
I know it's not the way I should be
But what can I do, I'm just a fool, and I'm livin' life freeAnd it's so deceiving how people perceive me
But I'm in search of the perfect one
And it's so deceiving how people perceive me
But I'm searching for the only one, yeah, yeahFell in love with a girl on Sunday
Fell in love with another on Monday
Who knows what will happen today
I'm goin' girl crazy
Wine and dinin' all these honeys
Hangin' out, blowin' all of my money
Even though it's kinda funny
I'm still girl crazySome call this make believe
I call it reality
It's true, yes, what they see
That every time I hold someone
That's when I want the other oneCan't stop, I like it anyway
A different girl, a different day
It's just me, what can I say
And every time I find someone
That's when I want another oneI'm goin' girl crazyFell in love with a girl on Sunday
Fell in love with another on Monday
Who knows what will happen today
I'm goin' girl crazy
Wine and dinin' all these honeys
Hangin' out, blowin' all of my money
Even though it's kinda funny

I'm still girl crazyFell in love with a girl on Sunday
Fell in love with another on Monday
Who knows what will happen today
I'm goin' girl crazy
Wine and dinin' all these honeys
Hangin' out, blowin' all of my money
Even though it's kinda funny
I'm still girl crazyI'm still girl crazy
I'm goin' girl crazy
I'm goin' girl crazy
