

Just Because

Katie Reider

You ask why and I try to explain Just why my heart's chosen you Here I say that you're mine and have been through all of time No space, no distance, could ever change the place you have in me

    So many ways to say I love you
    I can hardly name them all
But when it comes down to my final reason Why I love you is just because

    Got a box filled with old photographs and all the messages you wrote on the back and the grin that you gave me when you told me maybe, baby No time could dull my senses lost in love's sweet sensation yeah.....Oh yeah

    So many ways to say I love you
    I could hardly name them all
but when it comes down to my final reason
    why I love you is just because ooooo just because Just because
