Dying Love

Useless ID

nothing's gonna break me down i'll find a way to bury you within the past you don't want to see me drown my eyes are burning every tear a memory your perfume in my skin takes a few weeks to wash it off been so hard cutting you out of my veinsdying love is all we have there's no control and no regrets i gave it all
i gave it up for a reason there's nothing left for me to do i'm losing it
waiting here for younothing's gonna break me down the twisted life you've given me a bloody scene this nightmare is leaving now recover from this mental health where i've been paint me black, i'll see white i won't be calling you tonight feel my pulse steal it and leave me behind i just can't take itdying love is all we have
waiting here for you i'm waiting...we say we're overdue now i can say i'm over you
