

She's Gonna Find Me Here

Melee

I don't have to climb the highest mountain
And I don't have to sail the seven seas
No I don't have to push myself through desert sands
'Cause she's gonna find me here
I don't have to put on all my best clothes
I don't have to put on a show
No I don't have to act like a total stranger
'Cause she's gonna find me here
When she finally arrives, it'll be right on time
And I'll know that it's real 'cause the light in her eyes
Will look through and show what a fool I have been
To search far and wide with my heart in my hands
I don't have to worry about her
'Cause I know she's fine now on her own
I can put my mind on things in my own life

'Cause she's gonna find me here
You know that she's gonna find me here
When she finally arrives, it'll be right on time
And I'll know that it's real 'cause the light in her eyes
Will look through and show what a fool I have been
To search far and wide with heart in my hands
I don't have to cut up my heart into pieces so small
And give them to those who don't care
I don't have to search for one girl in the depths of my soul
'Cause she's gonna find me, she's gonna find me
You know she's gonna find me here
I don't have to search far and wide
'Cause she's gonna find me here
