

If Nobody Sang Along

Chrisette Michele

If there were no record labels
No radios or TVs
No magazines, no MTV
No Channel V to see Would I even tell my story?
Would I even sing my song?
If nobody sang along Would I take the time to write it?
Would I say what's on my mind?
If nobody sang along Who's all this for? Is it my song or yours?
Am I the superstar or are you?
Oh, I feel so judged like I'm on trial
But if you aren't around
Would I care to tell the truth? Would I even tell my story?
Would I even sing my song?
If nobody, nobody sang along Would I take the time to write it?
Would I say what's on my mind?
If nobody sang along Maybe, I like being played on the radio
Maybe, I like being just like the other girls
Maybe, I wish I was in more media
Maybe I need to just say what I wanna say Maybe I should tell my story
Maybe I should sing my song
And somebody just might sing along Maybe if I only write it
And just say what's on my mind
I'd be all over your TV screen
The radio would play what I believe If I just say what's inside of me
I might set somebody free
If I just be me, me
