I Wanna Lose

Sponge

There's all that you win
There's all that you believe in
There's all that you hope for
There's where you want more
There's all that you fear
There's all that you hope to hear
There's all that you gather
'Cause nothing else mattersI wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it dieThere's not to begin
Let go of the feelin
With nothing about it
There's no way without it
Forget all you know
I'll be the first one to let go
Life is for giving
For no other reasonI wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it die
I wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it dieI wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it die
I wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it die
I wanna lose
And let go of everything
And let it die
And let it dieThere's all that you win
There's all that you win
There's all that you win
There's all that you win
