A Solid Bond In Your Heart

The Style Council

Feelin' is a word I cant explain
At least not in words that are plain
To make it easy to express
Ill try to do my best to hit you where it counts
I just wanna build up a solid bond in your heart
Yeah, a solid bond in your heart, ahaI am fueled by the idea
That this world was made to share
But it never seems to work out
And all we seem to share is doubt and misery
I just wanna build up a solid bond in your heart, heartWhen you feel in your soul
And your heart begins to blow
Keep it in mind to
Keep on tryin', oohIts like a feeling deep inside
Please dont ever try to hide
That solid bond in your heart
Yeah, a solid bond in your heart, aha, oohOh, I just wanna build up
A solid bond in your heart
Its whats missing from this life
And the trust you need to ignite
Any dream worth holding dear
When that dream is so nearYou gotta try and try to get it back
Push it to the limit and build
A solid bond in your heart
Yeah, a solid bond in your heart, aha, ooh
Solid bond in your heart, oohSolid bond in your heart, ooh
Solid bond in your heart, ooh
Solid bond in your heart, ooh
