Way Too Much

Chromeo

I should have known that you were in a situation
You got a man but is he loving you the right way?
I don't step in because I know my limitations
But I would really like to be with you tomorrowLet me introduce myself I'm just a young boy
I never thought that I'd fall victim to a woman
She took my pride, she took my soul in my confusion
And it all started when she told me to come overOoh, ain't no doubt about it, girl
'Cause you are on my mind
Way too much, much, much, muchOoh, ain't no doubt about it, girl
'Cause you are on my mind
Way too much, much, much, muchMy momma told me about girls who hide emotions
She said that every single one's got an agenda
I gave no signals but you got the wrong impression
I guess I should've taken time to know you betterOoh, ain't no doubt about it, girl
'Cause you are on my mind
Way too much, much, much, muchOoh, ain't no doubt about it, girl
'Cause you are on my mind
Way too much, much, much, much'Cause you are on my mind
Too much, much, much, much
Too much, much, muchWay too much, much, much, much
Way too much, much, much, much
