Part That's Holding On

Red

It all looks different now
But it was right in front of me
The memories fall around
Of everything I used to be
Can I let it go
When I still feel your echoes
I watched you disappear
But I canâ€™t make myself believe

I gave it all
But you were fading
Whereâ€™d you go, all alone
I couldnâ€™t stay
Another fall, through the dark
Of the shadows
I reached for you, only you
Thereâ€™s still a part
A part thatâ€™s holding on

Can we call it fair
Or was it just a dire game
Whoâ€™s the winner now
When I canâ€™t even speak your name
Caught inside the dream
When you were reaching back for me
Did you get lost inside
Or did you disappear

You were darkening
Never tried to see
What itâ€™s like to be
The one who lost it all
Did you find your way
Is there still a place
Is there a part of you
Thatâ€™s holding on Still holding on

You gave it all
But you were fading

Whereâ€™d you go?
whereâ€™d you go?
