Save Me Kill Me

Face Down

Here I stand alone
Abused by myself
Scenes of suicide
Like a solid wall of fear
Negativity overcomes
Positivity in me
Self pity, laughing
Screaming in my earsThe fuse is lit
The fuse that makes me explode
These questions I ask
Who gives and who takes?
If the answer is god, well
Who am I? His mistake?
An endless battle
Against depressive thoughts
Brief moments of victory
'Cause you know there is always more to comeThe fuse is lit
The fuse that makes me explodeI am
Alone
Save me
Kill meSave me
Sane me
Spent some time in myself to find out who I am
All I found was pain
Can I ever be saved?
Kill me please, set me free
Save me
Kill meThe fuse is lit
The fuse that makes me explode
