House of Control

Shining

I hear this broken sound of what`t s gone by
I see a tear of lead behind your eye
It`s happening again,
I`ve lost this place I didn`t occupy
Our broken fairy tale so hard to hideI hear it closer now, whisper through the night
I hear it through the dark, whispering a lie
It`s happening again, and you keep telling me you know I tried
But deep inside you know it`s all a lieBehind this cold and empty stare I know I was never thereNow I know it`s all a lie
Chose a poison, choose a life
Now I know just what I sold
I sold all the things I love - for a place - for a place in this House of ControlI`ve tried and tried but cannot hide from my dying drive
I`ve seen this across the sky, I came to say goodbye
I thouht I could control the end, thought I would change, but now i can`t pretend
I know how this will end, now I see whyBehind these red and bloodshot eyes
I know I`ll stay this way until I die
Because,Now I know it`s all a lie
Choose a poison, choose a life
Now I know just what I sold
I sold all the things I love for the place
In this empty House O ControlThere was a time before this time
When I told myself
There was a time before this when I told myself
It was worth the sacrifice
To sacrifice all I loved for what I was going to love
There was a time before this time
In my my my my cold black soul
I knew what I was living for
But now , but now I`m not so sureDamn you life, look what you stole
All this time I`ve played this role
Look deep inside this cold black soul
Where all you`ll find`s a foul dead holeBehind the taste of what I said
Behind the silence in my head
Behind this cold and empty bed
Where thoughts of you are all foun deadHey! (12)Now I know it`s all a lie

Choose a poison, choose a life
Now I know just what I sold
I sold all the things I loveNow I know it`s all a lie
Choose a poison, choose a life
Now I know just what I sold
I sold all the things I loveNow I know it`s all a lie
Choose a poison, choose a life
I sold all the things I love
For a place in this empty House Of ControlNow I know it`s all a lie
Choose a poison, choose a life
Now I know just what I sold
I sold all the things I love for a place in this empty House of Control
