Soulburn

Masterplan

Out of the womb and into the light
It comes in purity, yeah
Arrive with peace, untouched by man's disease
Awake and not aware, no, noNow, feel the soul burn, pathfinderThey teach him right but he knows they're wrong
He sees in silence, yeah
They tell him stop, he wants to move on
Spread the wings to fly them, ohhHe hopes for someday soonAnd the world is like a shiny diamond
The way it glitters if you polish it right
And if the light should turn and leave you blinded
Take the dream and give it one more tryFeel the soul burnPapa says, no time to loose
Go fast if you wanna make the headline news
The road to stardom can be painful and long
In the spotlight the heat is on, yeahYou'll be playing in the fireAnd the world is like a shiny diamond
The way it glitters if you polish it right
And if the light should burn and leave you blinded
There'll be treasures on the other sideAnd the piper will play till sundown
As the preacher prays for it to rise
And if the wind should blow and leave you stranded
Sailing ships will always pass you byFeel the soul burn, pathfinder
Into the storm, a child is born, pathfinder
They'll make you burn
PathfinderAnd the world is like a shiny diamond
The way it glitters if you polish it right
But if the light should turn and leave you blinded
Take the dream and give it one more tryAnd the piper will play till sundown
While the preacher prays for it to rise
And if the wind should blow and leave you stranded
Take a breath and give it one more try
