

Obvious

Gia Farrell

Its obvious (2x)Im thinking its about time,
I say what I feel,
You know you wanna hold me tight,
Its something quit suriel,
It never should have took so long,
For us to cross that line,
When I ve been in your heart, and youve been on my mind,I only wanna Feel the fire and the fameI only wanna Get your feelings just the sameI only wanna let them know this is the day,When Ill be in your heart and Ill be in to stay

Cause now its obvious, obvious,
Its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good, and now its obvious, obvious,
And now its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good,Im thinking am I wrong mind,
I should take you home,
Let me get my dies upon your pretty bones,
My lovin begins today, only thats how it feels,
So lets not run away boy

Lets just stop and stareI only wanna Feel the fire and the fameI only wanna Get your feelings just the sameI only wanna let them know this is the day,When youll be in your heart and youll be in to stay

Cause now its obvious, obvious,
Its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good, and now its obvious, obvious,
And now its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good,I know I can feel it,
So hold me close, and life me in it,
And take me baby, to a quiet place,
Where I can sit and kiss your faceThats all I wanna do,
Its obvious

Cause now its obvious, obvious,
Its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good, and now its obvious, obvious,
And now its clear to us, its gonna be so good,
Be so good,
