

You Ain't Foolin' Nobody

Vince Gill

Why don't you come clean, baby?
I know what you're goin' through
You must think I'm some kind of crazy
Well honey, I'm just worried 'bout you You look so much like your Mama
And I'm sorry for you that she's gone
And if she was here, she would tell you
Don't lose sight of what's right and what's wrong 'Cause you ain't foolin' nobody
'Cause baby, the talk gets around
You ain't foolin' nobody
'Cause you're livin' in this one horse town Well, I hope your conscience is listening
When you're out, runnin' at night
All it takes is one bad decision
To haunt you the rest of your life You ain't foolin' nobody
'Cause baby, the talk gets around
You ain't foolin' nobody
'Cause you're livin' in this one horse town 'Cause you ain't foolin' nobody
'Cause baby, the talk gets around
'Cause you're livin' in this one horse town
