

Slave

Odd Rival

It lost all meaning, cause I know i'm numb to the feeling
A stranger inside me, that I know I have to compete with
It lost all meaning, cause I know i'm numb to the feeling
A stranger inside me, that I know I have to compete with I struggle sleeping, cause I know i'm stuck to the ceiling
The comedown will break me and moments i'm trying to relive
I struggle sleeping, cause I know i'm stuck to the ceiling
The comedown will break me and moments i'm trying to relive I'm a slave to mistakes I keep repeating
I'm a slave to mistakes I keep repeating It lost all meaning, cause I know i'm numb to the feeling
A stranger inside me, that I know I have to compete with
It lost all meaning, cause I know i'm numb to the feeling
A stranger inside me, that I know I have to compete with
