

Boomtown

Less Than Jake

Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down, yeah
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down, yeah
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming downSo here let's talk about the boomtown facts
You've got stick up kids coming right at my back
Two blocks of reasonable rent and it's only getting smaller
And the rest of boomtown is only getting tallerYou've got ten miles of traffic and three hundred miles of roadway
And a million lights burning bright night and day
With all these lights going off like Roman candles
It's getting too much for me to handleBoomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down, yeah
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming downSo here let's talk about the boomtown facts
You've got stick up kids coming right at my back
Two blocks of reasonable rent and it's only getting smaller
And the rest of boomtown is only getting tallerYou've got ten miles of traffic and three hundred miles of
And a million lights burning bright night and day
With all these lights going off like Roman candles
It's getting too much for me to handleBoomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down, yeah
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming downBoomtown's only based on image torn down
And built up from one man's Vision
When all the workers are all up and gone
It feels like I'm sitting on a ticking time bombBoomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down, yeah
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming downBoomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, it's coming down
Boomtown's coming down, down, down, down
