

So Like a Rose

Garbage

Baby thinks he's dying
Lost inside his bedroom
Mommy won't stop crying
And daddy's always working There's no going back
There's no going back
There's no going back
On this one Baby wakes up with the sun
While everyone is sleeping
He thinks he's going crazy
But this could be the big one There's no going back
There's no going back
There's no going back Sleeping with ghosts
It's such a lonely experience
The stars are out tonight
Only they can hear you breathing You're so like a rose
You're so like a rose
You're so like a rose
I wish you could stay here
