

Overkill

False Prophets

Only way to feel the noise is when it's good and loud
So good I can't believe it's screaming with the crowd
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you
 Overkill, Overkill, Overkill, shut up
On your feet you feel the beat, straight to your spine
[Incomprehensible] it must be balck a kiss won't make you blind
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you

 Overkill, Overkill, Overkill, shut up
Know your body's made to move, you feel it in your guts
Rock 'n' roll ain't [Incomprehensible] if it don't make you strut
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you
 Don't sweat it, get it back to you, look out
Overkill, Overkill, Overkill, [Incomprehensible]
