Back From the Dead

StoneRider

I've been left for dead here
A thousand miles from home
With a hole in my chest right here
And a bullet in my done oh no

Feels like I lost my life
Guess I played the game so I paid the price
But it was cold at it the way you left me here
Now I've the leaving dead guy since you disappeared

And I know we both made mistakes
Sometimes that's just what it takes
Still I just can't let you go

[Chorus]
Just call out my name (and I'll find you)
No matter what's in the way (I'll remind you)
Nothing can stop me don't care what they said
Girl if you need me I'm coming back from the dead

It feels like I'm stranded nowhere else to go
It's worse than I imagined a life without a soul
Since you blew past I took my last breath
I guess nothing last maybe not even death
But that was cold hearted the way you played your part
Now I'm the living dead guy since you took my heart

And I know we both made mistakes
Sometimes that's just what it takes
Still I just can't let you go

[Chorus]

So I'm laying here 6 feet deep in the ground
Ever since you left you're you're you're not around
But it just ain't living without you by my side
'Cause only your love can bring me back to life

[Chorus: x2]
