

Papercuts

Runner Runner

She's an angel in disguise
You can see it in her eyes
I could never give up the fight
And I'll be waiting at her door
But I don't wanna wait no more
So take me right now Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me papercuts Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me papercuts
You gave me papercuts Now I'm walking close behind
Keep rehearsing all my lines
If she'd turn around just one time
I could tell her how I feel
That we need to make this real
So give me a chance to be here right now Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me papercuts Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me papercuts
You gave me papercuts
You gave me papercuts I've got nothing to talk about
It's out of my head now
These are the last words I'll write to you
Stuck in the real world
Caught in the typical
Now if she only had a clue Who do you want?
Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
It's more than just papercuts Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me papercuts Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me papercuts Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me papercuts Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me papercuts
You gave me papercuts You gave me papercuts

You gave me papercuts
Papercuts
