Heroes Tonight (feat. Johnning)

Janji

I'm walking alone, the streets are empty
The only I can see is my own silhouette
I'm getting stronger step by step

The clock is ticking but there is no time for regrets
I've been flying from town to town
From London to Taiwan
I've been all around the globe
Trying to protect your soul

We are heroes tonight
We would fly above the sky
We are heroes tonight, yeah
We are heroes tonight
We would fly above the sky
We are heroes tonight, yeah
Night yeah

Feeling like a dynamite
Ready to explode right up in the sky
I need you to listen I need you to hear
And don't show any fear
I've been flying from town to town
From London to Thailand
I've been all around the globe
Trying to protect your soul

We are heroes tonight
We would fly above the sky
We are heroes tonight, yeah
We are heroes tonight
We would fly above the sky
We are heroes tonight, yeah
We are heroes tonight, yeah
Night yeah

We are heroes tonight
We would fly above the sky
We are heroes tonight, yeah
I've been flying from town to town

From London to Thailand
I've been all around the globe
Trying to protect your soul
