

Again And Again

Status Quo

Once upon a time not so very long ago
There wasn't such a thing as a rock 'n' roll show
You had to sit at home and listen to the radio Then came a man with a rockin' guitar
Found himself a beat and he played it near and far
Everybody danced and sang and let the good times roll Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again?
Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again? He traveled 'round the world in a rock 'n' roll band
He stood there like a giant with a guitar in his hand
Everybody danced and sang and let the good times roll Nobody cared about the clothes he would wear
Nobody cared about the color of his hair
Everybody came to see and let the good times roll Again, again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again?
Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again? Now we've got the rhythm in us, now we've got the rock
Time didn't matter, never living by the clock
Everybody came to hear him playing his rock 'n' roll Then came a line when the music didn't rhyme
He couldn't find the rhythm 'cause he couldn't find the time
But still the people came to listen to the good times roll Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again?
Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again? Again, again, again, again, again, again, again
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again?
Why don't you do it, why don't you do it again?
