

Triumph of the Swill

Dead Kennedys

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Life can only get better
All you need to do is fall in love
Everyone else has fun but you
Buy that fun you'll fit in too Dance your problems away
(Government music)
Cheap escape to that mind-control beat
(Government music)
Mellow out life's too hard
You don't even want to think See the macho cock rock metal heroes
Vomit fire out of their big mouths
Shake your fists obediently
Make Leni Riefenstahl real proud See the Aryan Bozo with the red guitar
Parachute on The White House lawn
Gonna bomb the commies with his air guitar
So dumb he can't drive fifty-five Like Bing Crosby before them
(Government music)
Too idiotic to be real
(Government music)
You want it loud?
We'll make sure it goes nowhere
So you won't get ideas Triumph of the swill, triumph of the swill
Triumph of the swill, triumph of the swill Music is banned in Khomeini's Iran
On the grounds that it stimulates the brain
We've done him one better in the land of coke & honey
Using music to put people's brains to sleep Ever wonder why commercial radio's so bad
It's 'cause someone upstairs wants it that way
If The Doors or John Lennon were getting started now
The industry wouldn't sign 'em in a million years So what do we get
(Government music)
Christian censorship and taxed blank tapes
(Government music)
Shoppers strung out on our false hopes

Will flock to obey Triumph of the swill, triumph of the swill
Triumph of the swill, triumph of the swill
