

Tuesday Night

Kristin Hersh

When you sleep, you tell me off
I told you once before
I can't resist you When I sleep, I build you up
I make you king of here
I can't resist you I can't wait I'll suck down another water, while I wait
I watch the clock glow blue
And think of you, while I wait I can't wait The moon shines through my dress
And through my glass I promise
Not to drink until you're home I can't wait The moon pales even when I think it holds the face of the clock
I watch for you, while I wait I can't wait
