Trinity

Jennifer Knapp

You in the mirror starin' back at me
Oh, conscience let me be
To the pure, all things are pure
To those who're defiled
Unbelieving, nothing is pureTheir minds, their conscience defiled
They profess to know God
But deceive Him by deeds all the whileWhere do I stand? On the rock or in the sand?
Oh, Holy Spirit, won't You help me understand?
Holy Spirit, won't You say a prayer for me?With your groanings, my mind, my conscience defiled
Send the blood of the lamb don't leave me in exileWhat was that promise on the cross at Calvary?
Confess the Lord and the truth shall set you free
(Yeah)
Create in me a clean heart, O God
Renew a steadfast spirit within me
To my prayers you've always given heedBlessed be thy God
Who never turned away from me
Hid His face from all my sin, forgot
Forgot my iniquity(Go on and)
Raise your hands, sing praises to the Lord
He is the King and He'll reign forevermore
He died on the cross at Calvary
He died to save a wretch like me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/