

Prominence

Heavenly Beat

leave me out till I decide to think about pain honestly recoiled at any sense of slight as I pruned away at decency leave out what we knows right leave you gagging on my ecstasy prove somehow I've grown despite all the evidence spent the best of my time won't believe it pressed against that basement wall could I say all I wanted think of you as an alter what could I hope to offer seen life on the other side now I need it
I still see my hands on you revealing all that I've needed
think of you as an alter
hope to offer
