

Walk On to the Daylight

Venturia

Sailing over a blue and grey ocean
In a haze of a dream
You swim to secret shore
And you see a cold light and the mist around you

But it's only when I try
To forget who I am now
Slowly vanishing from the land
That used to be our own

I walk on to the daylight we've lost
Walk on to the way like an angel flies
I walk on to the daylight cos I'm still bleeding
I will keep on flying away

And when the time has come to let you go away
From the cage of my mind
My thoughts return again to the battle that you won
Just to give us a chance

But it's only when I cry
To forget who I was
That I feel so weak, oh it seems so hard to

Walk on to the daylight we've lost
Walk on to the way like an angel flies
Walk on to the daylight cos I'm still bleeding
I will keep on flying away

Can't hide it, I can't fight it
Night becomes a part of me
Where's the way, where's the time
You used to dream about at my side?

I walk on to the daylight we've lost
Walk on to the way like an angel flies
I walk on to the daylight cos I'm still bleeding
I will keep on flying away
I will...

Walk on to the way like an angel flies
Walk on to the daylight cosâ€™m Iâ€™m still bleeding
I will keep on flying away
